As the statewide center for quality craft, the Artisans Center of Virginia (ACV) supports and promotes the culture of Virginia artisans through education, entrepreneurship, research, galleries and exhibitions.

The Center believes that quality, handmade fine craft strengthens the cultural, educational and economic vitality of local communities.

- ◆ Heritage—maintaining the cultural of quality handmade fine craft.
- ◆ Economy—providing exhibition and sales opportunities
- ◆ Education—encouraging the development of the next generation artisan
- ◆ Jobs—developing professional advancement opportunities for the practicing artisan
- ◆ Research—gathering and documenting the impact of craft on Virginia's culture and economy
- ◆ Community—strengthening local communities by increasing visibility of artisan studios, venues and galleries
- ◆ Networking—promoting peer to peer collaborations among Virginia Artisans

Tax-deductible contributions should be made out to the "Artisans Center of Virginia."

ACV is officially registered with the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, P.O. Box 1163, Richmond, VA 23209. Donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.
